Data Flow Diagram

Kawthar Alkhateeb | October 21, 2023

Database of recipes table

User input means here user's ingredients and or their food lefotovers they would like to use tin a recipe and not throw out.

The output is in a form of a recipe and the systen outputs to the user how much they have saved in terms of money when they used their food lefovers and how much they contributed to a more sustainable world.

User

User input

Scraps2Dishes

output/recipe based on user's input data and user's profile data like dietary restrictions

Create a profile

Users database table